

'Tis the Season for Holiday Scams

Gift Exchange Scams

Job Scams

Gift Card Scams

Police warn Colorado Springs residents of holiday gift card scam

Just in time for the holidays, Colorado Springs police issued a warning that scammers have something new up their sleeves: replacing bar codes on gift cards sold at retailers with fake ones. Thieves are stealing gift cards from stores and cutting out the bar codes to replace them with a code from another gift card they've activated, police said.

Read more

Attorney General's Consumer Holiday Guide is Available Now!

Merry Christmas, Feliz Navidad, Happy Hanukkah, and a Joyous New Year! The holidays can create opportunities for scammers to take advantage of our generous natures. The Attorney General's Consumer Holiday Guide includes tips and resources that will help ensure a trouble-free holiday season.

View the Holiday Guide

You Can Make it Safer for Consumers in Colorado this Holiday Season

Every report we receive gives us insights into problems that people are experiencing in the marketplace and helps us to identify and prioritize problems for potential action. The result: better outcomes for consumers, businesses, and a better marketplace for Coloradans.

Tell us your story

