MEMORANDUM

TO: RETAIL SALES BUSINESSES

FROM: CONSUMER CREDIT UNIT
UNIFORM CONSUMER CREDIT CODE (“UCCC”)

RE: 2021 RETAIL SALES INITIAL NOTIFICATION FILING & FEES

Credit sellers and retail merchants that regularly extend consumer credit as a “creditor” must annually file notification and pay the appropriate fee, pursuant to §§ 5-6-201, 5-6-202 and 5-6-203, C.R.S.

A “creditor” is a person or business that sells or leases goods or services to consumers and either arranges financing from others or provides its own financing. If your name appears on a retail installment contract or consumer lease as the creditor, seller, or lessor, even if you immediately sell or assign the contract to a finance company or bank, you are a creditor.

Pursuant to § 5-1-301(11) and (14), C.R.S., a consumer credit sale or lease contract is entered into by you, the seller, and a buyer who is an individual person(s) other than an organization. Consumer sale contracts are primarily for a personal, family or household purpose and do not exceed $75,000. The debt is created by written agreement, payable in five or more installments and involves a finance charge and/or interest [§ 5-1-301(11) and (14), C.R.S.].

Retail sales companies are required to file notification even if the contracts are immediately sold or assigned to a third party.

You are required by law to file the UCCC notification form and pay the notification fee within 30 days after commencing business in Colorado and thereafter, on or before January 31st of each year.

If you are required to file notification and fail to do so, consumers have no legal obligation to pay any of the finance charges due under the credit transactions.

2021 Fees

The Retail Sales notification fee is $375 and is due within 30 days of commencing business as a Retail Sales company. If a complete notification and fee are not received within 30 days of commencing business, a late filing fee of $5.00 per calendar day will be imposed from the 31st day of business. Fees must be paid with a paper check, made payable to the Colorado Uniform Consumer Credit Code or Colorado UCCC.
