RE: Stakeholder Meeting on June 15, 2021 at 2 pm via Zoom for Rulemaking under the Colorado Consumer Protection Act and Colorado Antitrust Act

To Whom It May Concern:

The Colorado Consumer Protection Act (“CCPA”) authorizes the Attorney General to “prescribe such forms and promulgate such rules as may be necessary to administer the provisions of” the CCPA. C.R.S. § 6-1-108(1). Similarly, the Colorado Antitrust Act (“CAA”) provides that the Attorney General may “prescribe such forms and promulgate such rules as may reasonably be deemed to be necessary to administer the provisions” of the CAA. C.R.S. § 6-4-110(1)(b).

The Attorney General finds it necessary to propose rules to aid in the efficient and fair administration of the investigatory hearing process for matters involving the CCPA and the CAA. A copy of the proposed rules can be found here.

The Attorney General would like any written feedback on these topics or any additional topics for rulemaking at your earliest convenience by submitting them to this email address: cp.rulemaking@coag.gov. In addition, the Attorney General will hold a stakeholder meeting at 2 pm on Tuesday, June 15, 2021.
