STATE OF COLORADO ex rel. PHILIP J. WEISER, ATTORNEY GENERAL,  Plaintiff,  v.  DANE SNOVER, and FOXHOLE FARMS LLC,  Defendants.	▲ COURT USE ONLY ▲
	Case No.: 2024CV31760  Div.: A
FINAL CONSENT JUDGMENT

This matter is before the Court on the Parties’ Stipulation for Entry of a Final Consent Judgment. The Court has reviewed the Stipulation and the Complaint filed in this action (“Complaint”) and is otherwise advised in the grounds therefore. The Court concludes that good cause has been shown for entering this Final Consent Judgment.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that:

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1 Scope of Final Consent Judgment. The provisions of this Final Consent Judgment are entered pursuant to the Colorado Consumer Protection Act, C.R.S. §§ 6-1-101, et seq. (“CCPA”).

1.2 Release of Claims. The Attorney General acknowledges by its execution hereof that this Final Consent Judgment constitutes a complete settlement and release of all claims under the CCPA on behalf of the Attorney General against Defendants Foxhole Farms, LLC and Dane Snover (d/b/a “Foxhole Farms”, collectively “Defendants”), with respect to all claims, causes of action, damages, fines, costs, and penalties which were asserted or could have been asserted under the CCPA in the Complaint, that arose prior to this date and relating to or based upon the acts or practices which are the subject of the Complaint filed in this action. The Attorney General agrees that it shall not proceed with or institute any civil action or proceeding under the CCPA against Defendants, including, but not limited to, an action or proceeding seeking restitution, injunctive relief, fines, penalties, attorneys’ fees, or costs, for any conduct or practice prior to the date of entry of this Final Consent Judgment which relates to the subject matter of the Complaint filed in this action.

1.3 Liability. All Parties are entering into this Final Consent Judgment for the purpose of compromising and resolving all of the disputed claims. Nothing in this Final Consent Judgment shall be construed or deemed an admission by Defendants of any wrongdoing or any violation of state or federal law or regulation. Defendants expressly deny any liability or wrongdoing and are entering into this Final Consent Judgment to avoid further inconvenience and costs of litigation.

1.4 Preservation of Law Enforcement Action. Nothing herein precludes the Attorney General from enforcing the provisions of this Final Consent Judgment, or from pursuing any law enforcement action under the CCPA with respect to the acts or practices of Defendants not covered by this Complaint and Final Consent Judgment or any acts or practices of Defendants conducted after the entry of this Final Consent Judgment.

1.5 Compliance with and Application of State Law. Nothing herein relieves Defendants of their duty to comply with applicable laws of the State of Colorado nor constitutes authorization by the Attorney General for Defendants to engage in acts and practices prohibited by such laws. This Final Consent Judgment shall be governed by the laws of the State of Colorado.

1.6 Non-Approval of Conduct. Nothing herein constitutes approval by the Attorney General of Defendants' past or future business practices. Defendants shall not make any representation contrary to this paragraph.

1.7 No Creation or Waiver of Private Claims. Unless otherwise noted, nothing herein shall be construed as a waiver of any private rights, causes of action, or remedies of any person against Defendants with respect to the acts and practices covered by this Final Consent Judgment. This Assurance also does not create any private right, cause of action, or remedy for any third party with respect to the acts and practices covered herein.

1.8 Use of Settlement as Defense. Defendants acknowledge that it is the Attorney General's customary position that an agreement restraining certain conduct on the part of a defendant does not prevent the Attorney General from addressing later conduct that could have been prohibited, but was not, in the earlier agreement, unless the earlier agreement expressly limited the Attorney General's enforcement options in that manner. Therefore, nothing herein shall be interpreted to prevent the Attorney General from taking enforcement action to address conduct occurring after the entry of this Final Consent Judgment that the Attorney General believes to be in violation of the law. The fact that such conduct was not expressly prohibited by the terms of this Final Consent Judgment shall not be a defense to any such enforcement action.

1.9 Use of Settlement in Business Activity. Under no circumstances shall this Final Consent Judgment, the name of the Attorney General, or the names of any of the Attorney General's employees or representatives be used by Defendants or any of their employees, representatives, or agents as an endorsement of any conduct, past or present, by Defendants.

1.10 Retention of Jurisdiction. This Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter for the purpose of enabling any party to this Final Consent Judgment to apply to the Court at any time for any further orders which may be necessary or appropriate for the construction, modification or execution of this Final Consent Judgment, and for the enforcement of compliance herewith and the punishment of violations hereof.

1.11 Violations of Consent Judgment. The parties understand and agree that a finding of any violation of any term or provision of this Final Consent Judgment may give rise to all contempt remedies available to the Court, including those provided under C.R.S § 6-1-112(1)(b).

1.12 Execution in Counterparts. This Final Consent Judgment may be executed in counterparts. Signatures received via PDF scanned electronic file shall be deemed to be original signatures.

1.13 Severability. If any provision(s) of this Final Consent Judgment is held to be invalid, illegal, unenforceable, or in conflict with the law of any jurisdiction, the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

1.14 Successors in Interest. The terms and provisions of this Final Consent Judgment may be enforced by the current Colorado Attorney General, and by any of the Attorney General's authorized agents or representatives, as well as by any of the Attorney General's successors in interest, agents, or representatives.

1.15 Amendment. This Final Consent Judgment may be amended by the Court or by written agreement signed by the Attorney General and Defendants.

1.16 Complete Agreement. This Final Consent Judgment represents the entire agreement between the parties hereto and a complete merger of prior negotiations and agreements. No other written or oral terms or agreements exist between the parties except for those contained in this Final Consent Judgment.

1.17 Public Record. Pursuant to § 6-1-112(2), C.R.S. (2019), this Final Consent Judgment shall be a matter of public record.

1.18 Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Except as otherwise provided herein, each party shall bear its own attorneys' fees and costs in connection with this matter.

1.19 Voluntary Agreement. Defendants acknowledge that they have had an adequate opportunity to review this Final Consent Judgment and consult with legal counsel in connection with the negotiation, drafting, and execution of this Final Consent Judgment. Each party and signatory to this Final Consent Judgment represents that he, she, or they, freely and voluntarily enters into this Final Consent Judgment without any degree of duress or compulsion.

1.20. Final Consent Judgment Jointly Drafted. For purposes of construing this Final Consent Judgment, this Final Consent Judgment shall be deemed to have been drafted jointly by both parties and, in the event of any dispute arising out of this Final Consent Judgment, shall not be construed against or in favor of any party.

1.21 Notice. Whenever Defendants provide notice or any other documents to the Colorado Attorney General under this Final Consent Judgment, that requirement shall be satisfied by sending notice to Ryan S. Miller, Assistant Attorney General, Ryan.Miller@coag.gov and Nathan Mattison, Assistant Attorney General, Nathan.Mattison@coag.gov, Consumer Fraud Unit, Colorado Department of Law, 1300 Broadway, 9th Floor, Denver, CO 80203.
