STATE OF COLORADO

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

ASSURANCE OF DISCONTINUANCE

IN THE MATTER OF COBBLESTONE DENVER OPCO, LLC

This Assurance of Discontinuance ("Assurance") is voluntarily entered into between the Attorney General of the State of Colorado, Philip J. Weiser, in his official law enforcement capacity, and Cobblestone Denver Opco, LLC (together with the Attorney General, hereinafter referred to collectively as the "Parties," and each a "Party"). This Assurance constitutes a voluntary settlement between the Parties regarding the allegations described in this Assurance.

1 Parties

1.1 The Attorney General for the State of Colorado (the "Attorney General") has jurisdiction to investigate and enforce against violations of the Colorado Consumer Protection Act ("CCPA"), Colo. Rev. Stat. sections 6-1-101, et. seq. Where the Attorney General has authority to institute a civil action or other proceeding pursuant to the provisions of the CCPA, the Attorney General may also accept, in lieu thereof or as a part thereof, an assurance of discontinuance of any alleged unfair or deceptive trade practice listed in the CCPA. C.R.S. § 6-1-110(2).

1.2 Cobblestone Denver Opco, LLC ("Cobblestone") is a Foreign Limited Liability Company registered with Colorado Secretary of State. Cobblestone provides car washing and detailing services at over 40 locations in Colorado. Cobblestone offers various memberships where consumers pay a monthly price for access to car washes. These membership plans are automatic renewal contracts that automatically renew until the consumer cancels the contracts.

2 Background

2.1 In late 2024, the Attorney General began investigating Cobblestone following consumer complaints that monthly membership prices had increased without notice, that consumers encountered difficulty when attempting to cancel their memberships, and that the terms of the monthly memberships had not been properly disclosed.

2.2 In December 2024, the Attorney General subpoenaed Cobblestone for monthly membership information. Following receipt of this subpoena, and without admitting liability, Cobblestone made enhancements to its contract terms, billing practices, and member communications consistent with its ongoing commitment to the membership experience. The Parties agree that Cobblestone cooperated with the Attorney General's investigation, implemented remedial measures prior to the execution of this Assurance as described herein, and entered into this Assurance voluntarily and without the filing of any civil action or proceeding by the Attorney General.

2.3 The Attorney General alleges that from August 2022 to February 2025, Cobblestone failed to comply with Colorado's automatic renewal law with respect to its automatically renewing contracts, including by not providing consumers with the required notices and disclosures for its automatically renewing memberships.

2.4 Specifically, the Attorney General alleges that:

2.4.1 Cobblestone made material changes to consumers' monthly membership contracts, including adjusting the monthly price of the membership, without notice in violation of § 6-1-732(3);

2.4.2 Cobblestone failed to provide trial period disclosures, a clear and conspicuous explanation of the price that would be charged, and any further purchase obligations that would be imposed on the consumer after the trial period, in violation of § 6-1-732(2)(a);

2.4.3 Cobblestone failed to provide consumers with a written, retainable, acknowledgement that included the automatic renewal offer terms, the cancellation policy, and information regarding how to cancel in violation of § 6-1-732(2)(c);

2.4.4 Cobblestone failed to provide consumers with notice that their membership would extend beyond a continuous twelve-month period, in violation of § 6-1-732(4)(b)(I) & (II);

2.4.5 Cobblestone failed to provide consumers with a simple, timely, or easy way to cancel their monthly memberships, in violation of § 6-1-732(2)(d); and

2.4.6 Cobblestone failed to present the terms of the monthly memberships in a clear and conspicuous manner before consumers executed the contracts, in violation of § 6-1-732(2)(a).

2.5 Cobblestone denies (a) the allegations above; and (b) that it and/or its employees, subsidiaries, operators, licensees, and/or owners have violated any statute, regulation, decision, or law. Nothing contained herein may be taken as or construed to be an admission or concession of any violation of law, or of any other matter of fact or law, or of any liability or wrongdoing. Nothing in this Assurance, nor any action taken pursuant to it, shall be construed as evidence of liability, wrongdoing or unlawful conduct, and this Assurance shall not be admissible or used as evidence in any private civil action or administrative proceeding except in an action by the State to enforce this Assurance. The Attorney General agrees that this Assurance resolves the allegations outlined above and all other alleged violations that occurred up to and including the Effective Date arising out of the Covered Conduct. Further, the Attorney General agrees that this Assurance does not constitute a finding or adjudication that Cobblestone violated any law.

3 Definitions

3.1 For the limited purpose of this Assurance, the following definitions apply:

3.1.1 "Automatic renewal contract" means a plan or arrangement in which a paid subscription or purchasing agreement is automatically renewed at the end of a definite term for a subsequent term or on a continuous or recurring basis.

(2) Membership Plan Consumer who purchased a membership between January 1, 2022 and February 2, 2025, and did not receive a text, email, or physical receipt with all autorenewal terms the Attorney General alleges are mandated under Colorado law at the time of their purchase, who used the car wash four times or fewer, and who has not received a total refund of at least $19.00.

3.1.3 "Colorado Consumer Protection Act" or "CCPA" means the statutes codified at Colo. Rev. Stat. sections 6-1-101 to 6-1-1812.

3.2 Unless otherwise stated in this Assurance, all terms included herein shall have the same meaning as they do under the CCPA.

4 Assurance Terms

4.1 Scope of Assurance. This Assurance is entered into pursuant to the Attorney General's authority under Colo. Rev. Stat. Section 6-1-110(2).

4.2 Release of Claims. Subject to and upon satisfaction of the terms and conditions of this Assurance, the Attorney General agrees that this Assurance constitutes a complete settlement and release of all civil claims, demands, causes of action, and remedies (including but not limited to penalties, restitution, disgorgement, costs, fees, and injunctive relief), based on, arising out of, or in any way related to the Covered Conduct prior to the Effective Date to the full extent of the Attorney General's power and authority to release claims. This release applies to Cobblestone, its past and present parents, owners, members, subsidiaries, affiliates, successors, predecessors, and assigns, and each of their respective officers, directors, managers, employees, insurers, and reinsurers ("Released Parties").

Notwithstanding any term of this Assurance, any and all of the following forms of liability are specifically reserved and not released under paragraph 4.2:

4.2.1 Any criminal liability that any person or entity, including a Released Party and those working in conjunction with a Released Party, has or may have to the State of Colorado or any governmental unit of the State of Colorado;

4.2.2 Any civil or administrative liability that any person or entity, including a Released Party and those working in conjunction with a Released Party, may have to the State of Colorado or any governmental unit of the State of Colorado, under any statute, regulation, or rule not expressly released in this Assurance;

4.2.3 Any liability to the State of Colorado for any conduct other than the Covered Conduct;

4.2.4 Any liability for state or federal securities violations;

4.2.5 Any liability for state or federal tax violations (other than tax liability alleged or claims brought against any Released Party in this enforcement action);

4.2.6 Any liability for any state or federal antitrust violations;

4.2.7 Any liability stemming from enforcement of the terms of this Assurance.

4.3 Preservation of Law Enforcement Action. Nothing herein precludes the Attorney General from enforcing the provisions of this Assurance, including those provisions to ensure compliance, or from pursuing any law enforcement action under the CCPA with respect to acts or practices of Cobblestone not covered by this Assurance. This paragraph applies solely to acts or practices that are not Covered Conduct and that occur after the Effective Date.

4.4 Compliance with and application of state law. Nothing in this Assurance relieves Cobblestone of its duty to comply with any federal, state, or local law, regulation, ordinance, or rule. Nothing in this Assurance constitutes authorization by the Attorney General to engage in acts or practices prohibited by such laws. This Assurance is governed by the laws of the State of Colorado. Nothing in this Assurance shall be construed to create any third-party obligation, liability, or right not otherwise existing under applicable law.

4.5 No Approval of Conduct. Nothing herein constitutes approval by the Attorney General of Cobblestone's conduct, or past or future business practices. Cobblestone shall not make any representation contrary to this paragraph. The Attorney General's failure to approve Cobblestone's conduct, or past or future business practices, shall not be construed as a finding or determination that Cobblestone violated any law.

4.6 Third-Party Claims. This Assurance is only for the benefit of the Parties and does not create or confer rights or remedies upon any other person, including rights as a third-party beneficiary. This Assurance does not create a private right of action on the part of any person or entity, whether to enforce this Assurance or otherwise, other than the Parties and their successors in interest. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as a determination or acknowledgment that any consumer is entitled to restitution or other monetary relief beyond that provided pursuant to this Assurance, or as a statement regarding the merits, value, or viability of any private claim.

4.7 Use of Settlement as Defense. Except as otherwise set forth herein, nothing herein shall prevent, or be interpreted to prevent, the Attorney General from taking enforcement action to address acts or conduct occurring after the Effective Date that the Attorney General believes to be in violation of the law. The fact that such acts or conduct were not expressly prohibited by this Assurance shall not be a defense to any such enforcement action by the Attorney General. Nothing in this section shall be construed to create evidentiary or substantive rights for any person other than the Attorney General.

4.8 Use of Settlement in Business Activity. Under no circumstances shall this Assurance, the name of the Attorney General, or the name of any employee of the Attorney General or his representatives be used by Cobblestone as an endorsement of any past or present act or conduct of Cobblestone. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prevent Cobblestone, in connection with any legal, regulatory, financial, commercial, or corporate obligation or transaction, from referencing this Assurance.

4.9 Severability. If any provision(s) of this Assurance is found to be invalid, illegal, unenforceable, or in conflict with the laws of any jurisdiction, the remaining terms remain valid, legal, and enforceable.

4.10 Successors in Interest. The terms and provisions of this Assurance may be enforced by the Parties and by any of the Parties' authorized agents or representatives, as well as by any of the Parties' successors in interest and any of their respective agents or representatives.

4.11 Execution of Assurance. This Assurance may be executed in counterparts. Electronic signatures shall have the same effect as original signatures so long as the electronic signature otherwise complies with C.R.S. § 24-71.3-101, et. seq.

4.12 Attorney's Fees and Costs. Except as provided in ¶ 6.8, each Party shall bear its own attorney's fees, costs, and expenses in connection with this matter and the Assurance, except that the Attorney General may be entitled to attorney's fees pursuant to C.R.S. § 6-1-113(4) if they successfully enforce this Assurance.

4.13 Amendment. This Assurance may only be amended by written agreement signed by the Attorney General and Cobblestone.

4.14 Acknowledgment. Cobblestone agrees and acknowledges that it has thoroughly reviewed this Assurance and has had opportunity to confer with legal counsel of its choice regarding this Assurance. Cobblestone understands that the Attorney General retains the ability to enforce any violation of this Assurance using any legal remedy. Cobblestone further acknowledges that proof by a preponderance of the evidence of a violation of this Assurance constitutes prima facie evidence of a deceptive trade practice for the purposes of any civil action or proceeding brought thereafter by the Attorney General. C.R.S. § 6-1-110(2).

4.15 Representations and Warranties. Cobblestone represents that it is financially solvent as of the Effective Date and has the present ability to comply with all of its obligations under this Assurance. The Attorney General relies on these representations as a material inducement to resolve this matter and enter into this Assurance.

4.16 Integration. Except for representations made regarding redress administration, this Assurance represents the entire agreement between the Parties, and there are no representations, agreements, arrangements, or understandings, oral or written, between the parties relating to the Covered Conduct that are not fully expressed herein. In any action undertaken by the Parties, no prior versions of this Assurance or its terms are admissible for any purpose except to the extent a prior version is necessary to resolve an ambiguity in the terms of this Assurance.

4.17 Internal Revenue Service Form 1098-F. Cobblestone shall cooperate in the Attorney General's Office's completion of Internal Revenue Service Form 1098-F by providing the Attorney General by December 31, 2026, any additional necessary information requested by the Attorney General's Office.

4.18 Notice to Parties. Cobblestone is responsible for ensuring that any Person subject to the terms of this Assurance receive sufficient notice of the Assurance. Whenever Cobblestone is to provide notice or any other documents to the Attorney General under this Assurance, that requirement shall be satisfied by sending notice to:

5 Injunctive Terms

5.1 Cobblestone agrees to continue the policies and processes it put in place starting in December 2024 as referenced in ¶ 2.2. For 3 years after the entry of this Assurance, Cobblestone shall:

5.1.1 If a material change occurs in the terms of a Membership Plan that is accepted by a Membership Plan Consumer, provide to the Membership Plan Consumer, in a manner that may be retained by the consumer, a clear and conspicuous notice of the material change and information regarding cancellation of the automatic renewal contract. A material change includes any change to the regular price of an automatic renewal contract, which shall not include a trial period price.[1] Cobblestone may modify its policies and processes from time to time provided such modifications remain consistent with the requirements of this Assurance and applicable law;

5.1.2 For contracts that include a trial period offer, provide a clear and conspicuous explanation of the price that will be charged and any further purchase obligations that will be imposed on the Membership Plan Consumer after the trial period ends;

[1] For the avoidance of doubt, Cobblestone must comply with the trial period price disclosures required by Colorado law. C.R.S. § 6-1-732(2)(a),(c).

5.1.3 Provide Membership Plan Consumers with a simple, timely, and easy-to-use process to cancel their Membership Plan such as the one-step online cancellation link on Cobblestone's website for Membership Plan Consumers who sign up online;

5.1.4 Present the Membership Plan terms, as set forth in C.R.S. § 6-1-732(1)(b)(I-V), in a clear and conspicuous manner before consumers execute the automatic renewal contract;

5.1.5 Provide Membership Plan Consumers with a written acknowledgement that is capable of being retained by the Membership Plan Consumer, which includes the Membership Plan terms, as set forth in C.R.S. § 6-1-732(1)(b)(I-V), the cancellation policy, and information regarding how to cancel. The written acknowledgement may be provided as a physical receipt or by email or text message;

5.1.6 Provide Membership Plan Consumers with periodic notices notifying the consumer that their contract will automatically renew or continue unless the consumer cancels the contract. Cobblestone shall send the notice via physical mail; e-mail; or another easily accessible form of communication, such as a text message or a mobile phone application. For memberships with a term of twelve months or more, Cobblestone shall send the notice between twenty-five (25) and forty (40) days before the contract renews. For memberships with a term of less than twelve months, Cobblestone shall send the notice between twenty-five (25) and forty (40) days directly preceding any subsequent automatic renewal that would extend beyond a continuous twelve (12)-month period.

6 Monetary Terms

6.1 Cobblestone shall pay $1,353,465 for the redress of Affected Consumers. Each Affected Consumer shall receive a redress payment of $19. This portion is not a fine or other penalty paid for the violation of any law. Instead, such amount shall constitute compensatory restitution within the meaning of 26 U.S.C. § 162(f)(2)(A) and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder.

6.2 Cobblestone shall engage a third-party settlement administrator to implement the administration of redress to Affected Consumers as set out in the Redress Plan. To the extent that Cobblestone is unable to locate an Affected Consumer entitled to redress or to otherwise pay redress to Affected Consumers within the time specified in the Redress Plan, such unpaid refunds that remain unclaimed after completion of the Redress Plan, including amounts deemed unclaimed and amounts for Affected Consumers who could not be located after reasonable efforts, shall revert to the Attorney General in accordance with ¶ 6.6. The reversionary amount is payable to the "Attorney General of the State of Colorado," to be used in the Attorney General's sole discretion for the payment of restitution, if any, and for future consumer fraud or antitrust enforcement, consumer education, or public welfare purposes.

6.3 Within sixty (60) days of the Effective Date, Cobblestone must submit a Redress Plan to the Attorney General's Office. The Parties agree to finalize a Redress Plan that is consistent with the Redress Administration Letter submitted to the Attorney General on June 12, 2026.

6.4 Redress Notice. All redress payments to Affected Consumers must include a Redress Notice that states:

6.4.1 In August 2026, the Colorado Attorney General's Office and Cobblestone entered into an Assurance of Discontinuance to resolve alleged violations of the Colorado Consumer Protection Act. Cobblestone denied any liability or violations of the law. As a result of the settlement, Cobblestone is required to make payments to consumers. Cobblestone will distribute restitution checks to eligible Colorado consumers. For more information, please direct inquiries to the Claims Administrator at 877-516-5377 or to Consumer.Protection@coag.gov.

6.5 Cobblestone must mail all Redress Checks and Redress Notices within one hundred fifty (150) days after the Effective Date.

6.6 Within two hundred seventy days (270) after the Effective Date, Cobblestone must submit to the Attorney General's Office a report detailing the number of consumers who received redress, the total amount of redress paid to those consumers, and any remainder of funds to be wired to the Attorney General's Office pursuant to ¶ 6.2.

6.7 Cobblestone may not condition the payment of any redress to any Affected Consumer under this Assurance on that Affected Consumer waiving any right. Nothing in this Section shall be construed as a determination or acknowledgment that any consumer is entitled to restitution or other monetary relief beyond that provided pursuant to this Assurance, or as a statement regarding the merits, value, or viability of any private claim. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to limit Cobblestone's ability to assert any defenses otherwise available under applicable law in connection with any private action.

6.8 In addition to the payment in ¶ 6.1, Cobblestone shall pay the Attorney General the sum of $20,000 for the reasonable costs of the investigation into this matter within thirty (30) days after execution of the Effective Date. This amount is payable to the Attorney General along with any interest thereon, and is to be held in trust by the Attorney General, and to be used in the Attorney General's sole discretion for reimbursement of the State's actual costs and attorney's fees, the payment of restitution, if any, and for future consumer fraud or antitrust enforcement, consumer education, or public welfare purposes.

6.9 In addition to the payment in ¶ 6.1, Cobblestone has already paid $253,406 in refunds in the ordinary course to 2,204 Colorado consumers over the course of the Attorney General's investigation. Within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date, Cobblestone shall provide the Attorney General with written confirmation of such refund payments.

7 Enforcement

7.1 If the Attorney General has a reasonable basis to believe that Cobblestone has engaged in any conduct that may have violated the terms of this Assurance, the Attorney General shall notify Cobblestone of the specific objection, and identify with particularity the provision of this Assurance that the practice appears to violate. No later than thirty (30) days after receiving the notice the Attorney General sends pursuant to this paragraph, Cobblestone shall provide a written response to the notification that includes either:

7.1.1 Cobblestone's explanation for why it is in compliance with the Assurance; or

7.1.2 A request that the Parties confer regarding the alleged violation. If the Parties confer, they shall do so in good faith to reach a resolution about the alleged breach. If Cobblestone does not request a conferral, or after the Parties conferred in good faith and failed to reach a resolution, the Attorney General may pursue any legal remedy to enforce the Assurance. The Parties shall confer in good faith for a period of not less than thirty (30) days to reach a resolution about the alleged breach.

During such period, Cobblestone shall have the opportunity to cure the alleged violation. If the Parties fail to reach a resolution within such period, the Attorney General may pursue any legal remedy to enforce the Assurance.

7.2 The preceding paragraph, ¶ 7.1, does not apply to Cobblestone's obligations to make a monetary payment pursuant to this Assurance. Nothing in this Section limits the Colorado Attorney General's Civil Investigative Demand or investigative subpoena authority in any jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought in accordance with applicable law. Cobblestone reserves all rights in responding to a Civil Investigative Demand or investigative subpoena issued pursuant to such authority.

7.3 The notice and conferral requirements of ¶ 7.1 do not apply if the Attorney General determines, in his sole discretion, that the specific practice threatens the immediate health, safety, or welfare of the citizens of Colorado. The Attorney General shall provide Cobblestone with notice of an intent to file prior to the filing of any action made pursuant to this ¶ 7.3.

7.4 In any action brought by the Attorney General to enforce this Assurance, Cobblestone consents to the exercise of personal and subject matter jurisdiction in the Denver District Court. Cobblestone further consents to domestication of any judgment related to violations of this Assurance in any State Court within the United States.

7.5 Nothing in this Section 7 prevents the Attorney General from pursuing all available remedies allowed by law, including, but not limited to, those remedies allowed by C.R.S. § 6-1-112(1)(b), for any violation of this Assurance. The Attorney General may be entitled to attorney's fees pursuant to C.R.S. § 6-1-113(4) if they are successful in proving a violation of this Assurance.

7.6 For 3 years after the Effective Date, the Colorado Attorney General's Office shall provide Cobblestone with a copy of any consumer complaint regarding Cobblestone within sixty (60) days of receipt.

8 Reporting

8.1 Cobblestone must notify the Attorney General of any development that materially affects Cobblestone's ability to satisfy its compliance obligations arising under this Assurance, including but not limited to, a dissolution, assignment, sale, merger, or other action that would result in the emergence of a successor company; the creation or dissolution of a subsidiary, parent, or affiliate that engages in any acts or practices subject to this Assurance; the filing of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding by or against Cobblestone; or a change in any name or address to the extent that any such development materially affects Cobblestone's ability to satisfy its compliance obligations arising under this Assurance. Cobblestone must provide this notice, if practicable, at least thirty (30) days before the development, but in any case no later than fourteen (14) days after the development.

8.2 The obligations under this Section 8 expire once Cobblestone has completed its payment obligations under Section 6.

9 Bankruptcy

9.1 In the event and at such time that Cobblestone (i) fully performs the obligations set forth in Section 6 above, (ii) does not seek relief under Title 11 of the United States Code or under any state receivership or insolvency law within ninety-one (91) days of the Attorney General's final receipt of the full payment[s] due under Section 6 above, and (iii) is not the subject of an involuntary bankruptcy petition, receivership, or state insolvency proceedings within sixty (60) days of the Attorney General's final receipt of full payment due under Section 6 above, then the Attorney General's release under Section 4 shall become effective and constitute a complete settlement and release of all claims as set forth more fully therein. Failure of the release to become effective does not, by itself, constitute a violation of this Assurance.

9.2 In the event that the above conditions subsequent for the release are not satisfied, then (i) the total amount of Cobblestone's liability due under this Agreement shall include (i) the full amount denoted in Section 6; and (ii) any interest, penalties, and penalty interest owed in connection with same. Further, the Attorney General may collect immediately the amount due using the methods or means described herein, authorized by Colorado law or other applicable law, unless stayed under federal bankruptcy law. Further, Cobblestone hereby acknowledges that the injunctive relief, as set forth in Section 5 above, is neither a “claim” nor a “debt” within the meaning of the Title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq. Accordingly, such injunctive relief is outside the scope of a bankruptcy discharge.

9.3 Cobblestone acknowledges that this Assurance does not transform the nature of the Attorney General’s claims against Cobblestone into breach of contract claims.

9.4 To the extent the Colorado legislature amends Colorado law or the Federal Trade Commission promulgates an amended rule or regulation governing negative options or subscriptions, the requirements of that rule (as long as it remains applicable, binding, and in effect) will supersede any requirements of Section 5 of this Assurance for which the amended rule or regulation makes compliance either infeasible or impossible.
